DEDICATION

To you, Miss McKay, we, the Senior Class of 1950, affectionately dedicate our Shield. We shall long remember the help you have given to us, the written lessons you have planned for us, and the patience you have shown to us, your little "C.C's." We like the way you have taught us to depend upon ourselves and to persist until we have achieved. We shall never forget you; our hope is that you will never forget us.

Miss Ruth Jenkins
Headmistress

"The light of those who guide will eventually radiate over all the earth."

—Anonymous.

The Right Reverend Stephen Fielding Bayne, Jr.

"The proud he tamed; the penitent he cheered; nor to rebuke the rich offender, feared; his preaching much, but more his practice wrought, a living sermon of the truths he taught."

—Dryden.

The Reverend Arthur Bell
Chaplain

"Whose armour in his honest thought,
and simple truth his utmost skill."

—Sir Henry Wotton.

SPADE SONG

Oh where, Oh where did we ever
find the spade,
Oh where, Oh where did we ever
think to look?
We found it in a little crevice,
A crevice which the last year's seniors made.
They made it.
We'll tie a big red ribbon all
around it,
So the classes after us will always know
That the class of '50 was the first to find it
Underneath the bowling alley floor.

CLASS COLORS

RED & WHITE

MOTTO

To red and white we're true.

CLASS SONG

The mighty class of '50
Is the class we sing about,
The greatest class in history
For which we'll always shout.
We're noted for our wisdom
And the clever things we do;
We've won our victory on the field
And in the class room, too.
Strength to strength, girls,
To red and white we're true.
That's our motto
In everything we do.
We're climbing, climbing to the top,
And when we've reached the height,
We'll always be so thankful
To our dear old Annie Wright.

Sweaters, sweaters,
How we love them, how we love them,
Our Senior sweaters.
We'll show the world our joy.
When we appear,
We're quite a sight in red and white.
Our sweaters,
How we love them, how we love them,
Our Senior sweaters.
We'll show our spirit and pep to you all
When we come marching down the hall.

How I Grew

I've been a very happy and successful class. I came into existence in 1937, when two little chubby chérubs, Delinda and Millie, entered the kindergarten, the first members of the "mighty class of 50". And how sweet Delinda looked when she was a flower girl in the May Day Court. Then curly-haired Mary Carol joined me in the second grade, and the three became known as the horsey set. Shy little Marion Porter came in the eighth class to stay. I really began to be noticed when my members threw stupendous candy sales and danced in The Jester's Quest on May Day.

My Freshman year was really something to write about. Some angel-faced, but extremely mischievous little girls by the names of Diane, Jo Ann, Barbara, Karen, and Mary Virginia joined my not too angelic members. I was proud of the great class I was, even though I was a little naughty at times. Top among my members' many ingenious ideas, good and bad, was the one about selling team caps at the Christmas Carnival. Another feat to be proud of was the heavenly Soph-Frosh Hop with the unusual theme of The Old Lamp Lighter. Of course the Class Day was tremendously spent peacefully? cruising on the Sound.

My Sophomore year I welcomed only two more permanent members, Jane and Dee, but from the way things turned out I guess two were enough. Diane, our president, was busy keeping peace and organizing committees for the Soph-Frosh Hop, Winter Wonderland. Another great triumph to add to my growing list of achievements was the winning of honorable mention for our Halloween skit, Senior Daze of '50. Min Porter was voted flag bearer for May Day. How proud I was of dear little Min standing there on the platform, her golden locks stringing in her face. Things became embarrassing at the end of the year when some of my little members threw their adviser, Miss McLain, into the lake.

My Junior year got off to a mighty start with Millie as the president and Min, with a haircut, as house council chairman. I was delighted at the fine addition of permanent members: Jean Pattison, Eleanor Seaman, Karlene Ruddy, Flavia Gierin, Bea Cutler, and apple-cheeked Nancy Crane. My, I was proud when they walked away with the cup for the best Halloween play, It Happened on Halloween Night. The Junior Journal was improved upon by the addition of a red letter heading. With Barbara in charge of the library committee and Bea in charge of the pound, the students were kept busy paying fines. Junior Sales, headed by Eleanor, was one of the main events of each week because of the delicious food and low prices. The water carnival, under the direction of Delinda, was one of my main achievements and was really one of the most successful ever had. My most successful achievement was the production of our class play, The Taming of the Shrew, with Delinda so ably portraying Kate, and J. B. gallantly enacting Petruchio. The Junior Prom was another big achievement to be proud of. My members looked pretty in their formals. Then the excitement began to mount when the girls took over Senior duties. Eleanor was elected Maid of Honor, Min was Key Girl, and Diane was awarded the Lambeth cup. My Junior year came to a bang-up end with the step-song singing, when Barbara became our lucky senior. Class day, the final event, was joyously spent on the Russells' boat.

My Senior year began with the addition of Marilyn McLallen to the eighteen mighty members. Except for my two day students, we all lived on the senior corridor. On Halloween we dressed, looked, and smelled like the song, "I'm a Lonely Little Petunia in an Onion Patch." Bea led the class as President, and Mary Carol found the spade in the bowling alley case. On Mondays and Fridays we were quite noticeable in our red sweaters. We really excelled in switchboard and ushering. Our Senior Booth with Flavia in charge of stuffed animals was very successful; and with Eleanor at the head, the Christmas Carnival made more money than ever before! We went caroling at Christmas around the school, even to the exclusive fourth floor. We sang at our last Christmas and Easter Carol Services. With Barbara, Delinda, and Catherine as Editors, our attractive Shield was produced. We'll never forget the Youth Center or the wonderful ski week end. With Barbara Lewis as our lovely Queen we ruled May Day, and everyone had Spring Fever. Then the tree planting, exams, and Senior week followed in quick succession. Amazingly soon we faced Commencement and graduation in our beloved Chapel.

Good-by, Annie.

Class Song

Green and white, we will show you our might;
We will fight for honor and fame.
As forward we stride, Annie Wright will provide
Us with courage to make a great name.
Our triumphs unfold at the glories we'll hold
In the spirit in which they were won.
Though we know we'll sometimes lose,
We'll fight 'till the job is done.
So—we'll onward go
To do our best for '51!

TEAM SONG

When the Blues come marching down the floor,
 You know that we will always score.
 And though the other team may have some pep,
 When they meet the Blues, they'll know they're out of step.
 And when this game goes down in history,
 As just another Blue Team victory,
 We'll give three cheers for the mighty Blues
 With a rah! rah! rah!

TEAM SONG

Fight for the Gold Team, fight!
 Conquer the foe.
 We'll win whate'er you do so dig right in
 And fight more, more, more.
 Victory will be our aim;
 Show them your might.
 "Till we win every game, we'll fight for the Gold Team,
 Fight for the Gold Team, fight!

ALMA MATER

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Seminary fair;

May achievements crown thy labors
Is our earnest prayer.

Deep and true as those blue waters
Thou art reared above.

May the characters thou moldest
Hold thee in their love.

Pure as yonder snow-clad mountains
Where our glances fall,

May we in the years to follow,
Answer to thy call.

Chorus . . Hearts turned toward our Alma Mater,
May our lives at length
Prove thy daughters bear thy motto,
"On from strength to strength."
